Agenda Item 3 – Diversity Park Discussion

Mark Richwine, Parks and Recreation Manager for the City of Tempe attended the meeting. Mark advised the commission that historically the final authority of naming parks within the City of Tempe rests with the Mayor and Council. They have at times, consulted various Boards and Commissions for suggestions. Out of the 47 parks, all but 4 of them are named after a civic organization or individual. There is an option for a Diversity Park but the decision rests with Mayor and Council.

Commissioner Truxon asked Mr. Richwine about the soccer posts in neighborhood parks. Mr. Richwine clarified that 1) nets are not provided by the city and 2) the decision whether or not to have goal posts is decided in the original design of the park, or can be added or taken out at the request of the neighborhood.

Commissioner Zubair asked Mr. Richwine about noise and traffic around his neighborhood park. This noise and traffic is caused by individuals playing soccer. Mr Richwine explained that unless otherwise reserved through his department, parks are open to all citizens to enjoy and the parks close at 10:00pm.

Chair Byron brought the discussion back to the topic at hand, Diversity Park. The original suggestion was for the Tempe Butte. She asked Mr. Richwine if he saw any impediment with that location. Mr. Richwine responded that the official name of that park is Hayden Butte Preserve. He suggested some other locations, including 6th Street Park, Indian Bend Park and the Tempe Sports Complex. The commission thanked Mr. Richwine for attending the meeting and the information.

Rosa presented recommendations and response to the letter that came out of the Diversity Dialogues Fall Session. Commissioner Truxon thanked the Diversity Office for the response. There was discussion of the validity of the comments made by participants, perhaps some issues were from a result of being uninformed.
